

Research Dynamics Consulting Group releases Version 4 of its SOP Templates for Investigator Sites

ROCHESTER NY – November 11 2009: Research Dynamics Consulting Group, a full service CRO and clinical research training company, has announced the release of the newest version (2010 version) of their Standard Operating Procedure Templates for Clinical Research Sites. Since their initial version over 10 years ago, these SOP templates have been one of the most recommended SOP templates available.

RDCG has completely revised all 22 of its current SOP templates and added 2 new SOPs - Patient Privacy and Confidentiality, and Use of Electronic Data Systems. The revisions also bring the SOPs up-to-date with the most recent regulations and guidance.

“Based on clients’ feedback, we have improved our already comprehensive SOP Templates. We have added the most frequently requested additional SOPs and are providing upgrade versions for our current SOP customers. This revised version, plus our year end discounts, provides up-to-date procedures, improves standardization, and offers value for Investigators and Clinical Sites looking to improve regulatory compliance and enhance staff performance,” says Lorraine D. Ellis, President/CEO.
